

Amend 2 Cal. Code Regulations Section 18730 to read:

§ 18730. Provisions of ~~Conflict of Interest~~ Conflict-of-Interest Codes.

(a) Incorporation by reference of the terms of this regulation along with the designation of employees and the formulation of disclosure categories in the Appendix referred to below constitute the adoption and promulgation of a ~~conflict-of-interest~~ conflict-of-interest code within the meaning of ~~Government Code section~~ Section 87300 or the amendment of a ~~conflict of interest~~ conflict-of-interest code within the meaning of ~~Government Code section~~ Section 87306 if the terms of this regulation are substituted for terms of a ~~conflict-of-interest~~ conflict-of-interest code already in effect. A code so amended or adopted and promulgated requires the reporting of reportable items in a manner substantially equivalent to the requirements of article 2 of chapter 7 of the Political Reform Act, ~~Government Code sections~~ Sections 81000, et seq. The requirements of a ~~conflict-of-interest~~ conflict-of-interest code are in addition to other requirements of the Political Reform Act, such as the general prohibition against conflicts of interest contained in ~~Government Code section~~ Section 87100, and to other state or local laws pertaining to conflicts of interest.

(b) The terms of a ~~conflict-of-interest~~ conflict-of-interest code amended or adopted and promulgated pursuant to this regulation are as follows:

(1) Section 1. Definitions.

The definitions contained in the Political Reform Act of 1974, regulations of the Fair Political Practices Commission (~~2-Cal. Code of Regs. sections~~ Regulations 18110, et seq.), and any amendments to the Act or regulations, are incorporated by reference into this ~~conflict of interest~~ conflict-of-interest code.

(2) Section 2. Designated Employees.

1 The persons holding positions listed in the Appendix are designated employees. It has
2 been determined that these persons make or participate in the making of decisions which may
3 foreseeably have a material effect on economic interests.

4 (3) Section 3. Disclosure Categories.

5 This code does not establish any disclosure obligation for those designated employees
6 who are also specified in ~~Government Code section~~ Section 87200 if they are designated in this
7 code in that same capacity or if the geographical jurisdiction of this agency is the same as or is 8 wholly included within the jurisdiction in which those persons must report their economic
9 interests pursuant to article 2 of chapter 7 of the Political Reform Act, ~~Government Code~~
10 ~~sections~~ Sections 87200, et seq.

11 In addition, this code does not establish any disclosure obligation for any designated
12 employees who are designated in a ~~conflict-of-interest~~ conflict-of-interest code for another

14 (A) The geographical jurisdiction of this agency is the same as or is wholly included
15 within the jurisdiction of the other agency;

16 (B) The disclosure assigned in the code of the other agency is the same as that required

19 (C) The filing officer is the same for both agencies.ⁱ

20 Such persons are covered by this code for disqualification purposes only. With respect to 21 all other designated employees, the disclosure categories set forth in the Appendix specify which 22 kinds of economic interests are reportable. Such a designated employee shall disclose in his or 23 her statement of economic interests those economic interests he or she has which are of the kind

1 described in the disclosure categories to which he or she is assigned in the Appendix. It has been
2 determined that the economic interests set forth in a designated employee's disclosure categories
3 are the kinds of economic interests which he or she foreseeably can affect materially through the 4 conduct of his or her office.

5 (4) Section 4. Statements of Economic Interests: Place of Filing.

6 The code reviewing body shall instruct all designated employees within its code to file

2 date of notice provided by the filing officer to file an assuming office statement, is not deemed to
3 have assumed office or left office, provided he or she did not make or participate in the making
4 of, or use his or her position to influence any decision and did not receive or become entitled to 5 receive any form of payment as a result of his or her appointment. Such persons shall not file
6 either an assuming or leaving office statement.

8 filing officer shall do both of the following:

9 (1) File a written resignation with the appointing power; and

1 (A) Except as set forth in subdivision (B), a personal loan received by any designated
2 employee shall become a gift to the designated employee for the purposes of this section in the
3 following circumstances:

20 the creditor, based on reasonable business considerations, has not undertaken collection action.

21 Except in a criminal action, a creditor who claims that a loan is not a gift on the basis of this

2 discharged in bankruptcy.

3 (C) Nothing in this section shall exempt any person from any other provisions of Title 9

9 distinguishable from its effect on the public generally, on the official or a member of his or her
10 immediate family or on:

11 (A) Any business entity in which the designated employee has a direct or indirect
12 investment worth ~~two thousand dollars ($2,000)~~ $2,000 or more;

2 $420 or more provided to, received by, or promised to the designated employee within 12
3 months prior to the time when the decision is made.

4 (9.3) Section 9.3. Legally Required Participation.

5 No designated employee shall be prevented from making or participating in the making
6 of any decision to the extent his or her participation is legally required for the decision to be
7 made. The fact that the vote of a designated employee who is on a voting body is needed to break
8 a tie does not make his or her participation legally required for purposes of this section.

9 (9.5) Section 9.5. Disqualification of State Officers and Employees.

10 In addition to the general disqualification provisions of section 9, no state administrative 11 official shall make, participate in making, or use his or her official position to influence any

1 When a designated employee determines that he or she should not make a governmental
2 decision because he or she has a disqualifying interest in it, the determination not to act may be
3 accompanied by disclosure of the disqualifying interest.

4 (11) Section 11. Assistance of the Commission and Counsel.

5 Any designated employee who is unsure of his or her duties under this code may request
6 assistance from the Fair Political Practices Commission pursuant to ~~Government Code section~~
7 Section 83114 and ~~2-Cal. Code Regs. sections Regulations~~ 18329 and 18329.5 or from the 8 attorney for his or her agency, provided that nothing in this section requires the attorney for the 9 agency to issue any formal or informal opinion.

10 (12) Section 12. Violations.

11 This code has the force and effect of law. Designated employees violating any provision 12 of this code are subject to the administrative, criminal and civil sanctions provided in the 13 Political Reform Act, ~~Government Code sections~~ Sections 81000-91014. In addition, a decision

ⁱ Designated employees who are required to file statements of economic interests under any other agency's ~~conflict of interest~~ conflict-of-interest code, or under article 2 for a different jurisdiction, may expand their statement of economic interests to cover reportable interests in both jurisdictions, and file copies of this expanded statement with both entities in lieu of filing separate and distinct statements, provided that each copy of such expanded statement filed in place of an original is signed and verified by the designated employee as if it were an original. See ~~Government Code section~~ Section 81004.

ⁱⁱ See ~~Government Code section~~ Section 81010 and ~~2-Cal. Code of Regs. section~~ Regulation 18115 for the duties of filing officers and persons in agencies who make and retain copies of statements and forward the originals to the filing officer.

ⁱⁱⁱ For the purpose of disclosure only (not disqualification), an interest in real property does not include the principal residence of the filer.

^{iv} Investments and interests in real property which have a fair market value of less than $2,000 are not investments and interests in real property within the meaning of the Political Reform Act. However, investments or interests in real property of an individual include those held by the individual's spouse and dependent children as well as a pro rata share of any investment or interest in real property of any business entity or trust in which the individual, spouse and dependent children own, in the aggregate, a direct, indirect or beneficial interest of 10 percent or greater.

^v A designated employee's income includes his or her community property interest in the income of his or her spouse but does not include salary or reimbursement for expenses received from a state, local or federal government agency.
